

EARLY ANNOUNCEMENT
TO ALL ARTISTS

INTERNATIONAL BORDER BIENNIAL

November 1, 2015 • February 7, 2016

The aim of the biennial is to recognize, stimulate, and disseminate artistic creation on the US-Mexico border. The exhibition of works in this fourth manifestation of the biennial will take place in Fall 2015 at the EPMA and the MACJ.

Jurors from the United States and Mexico who are distinguished in the contemporary field will choose works for exhibition and will assist in selecting prize winners.

All artists living and working within 200 miles of the border between Mexico and the United States will be invited to submit recent work on any theme.

Awards will include an EPMA purchase prize, an artist's residency, and a solo exhibition invitation.

The current deadline for submissions is 1 February 2015, but artists are encouraged to submit early, beginning any time after 30 June 2014.

Please stay tuned for new details, dates, and submission rules as they become available by consulting the El Paso Museum of Art and Museo de Arte de Ciudad Juárez Website and Facebook Page.
